

Lily is a junior at NYU majoring in Tourism and Hospitality Management. She has a passion for capturing the beauty of everyday life through photography—whether it's nature, food, or people. In her free time, she enjoys café-hopping, watching shows, shopping, and traveling.

CÙNG NHAU (TOGETHER)

By: Lily Doan

My artwork fits the theme “Hush” by capturing the quiet, melancholic moments shared with family and loved ones during Tết (Lunar New Year). Although Tết is typically vibrant and full of noise, there are still “hushed” pauses—times when people simply sit together, eat, drink, and reflect in each other’s company. My piece seeks to portray that gentle stillness that exists within celebration—the kind that lingers between clinking glasses and gentle smiles, where love exists not in words, but in presence.